

August 2004

This newsletter is also available online at:
<http://www.essecusa.com/newsletter/newsletter.htm>

Editorial

Do not miss...

... Our next Happy Hour Grandes Ecoles on Wednesday September 8 at Flute Midtown from 6:30pm to 8:30pm.

We are happy to invite the Alumni Clubs of the "New York Business Schools Club" (NYSBC), bringing together alumni from the Elite MBA schools including Anderson-UCLA; Columbia Business School Alumni Club NY; Cornell – Johnson Graduate School of Management; Duke – Fuqua School of Business; Georgetown; London Business School Club of NY; Wharton Club of NY; Yale Alumni Club of NY and many more....). An opportunity to "cross network" with prestigious American Alumni Clubs!

... Friday October 8, 2004 at 6:30pm, S.E. Jean-David Levitte, Ambassador of France, will speak at the French Consulate. Attention: First Come First Served! Please RSVP as the attendance is limited to 100 persons.

... Wednesday November 17th, Pierre Tapie, Dean of ESSEC Business School, will be in New York for an alumni event about ESSEC international development and the fundraising campaign. Time and place TBA.

ESSEC USA Community

Alumni forum

Chicago Chapter: more activities

Our Chicago Chapter Leader, Damien Zinck, is currently organizing a "get-together" for ESSEC alumni in the Chicago area. Please contact Damien if you are in the region and want to connect with other alumni.

Position available for a new Boston Chapter Leader

Our Boston Chapter Leader left Boston in June. If you are an ESSEC alumni fellow living in the Boston area and are willing to contribute to the development of our school in the US please contact Claire Stokes.

Amis des Grandes Ecoles

Volunteers we need your help!!!

Webmaster: you will update the website regularly according to the club's activity. In the long run you will be in charge of the English version as well as creating a forum for discussions and ads focused on job search and other tips related to working in the U.S.

Newsletter Editor: you will edit the monthly newsletter, collecting relevant information of interest to the members, enlarging the network's activity in the U.S. (for example with head hunters, immigration attorneys, etc.) and coordinating with the webmaster.

These positions require no more than one hour of work/week and will allow you to network with the most prestigious business environments in the U.S.

For more information please contact: Anne de Louvigny Stone

In This Issue

- Editorial
- ESSEC USA Community
- Upcoming Events
- Amis des Grandes Ecoles
- Thank You

ESSEC USA Upcoming Events

Miami Chapter Wednesday August 4, 2004 Get-together

Beach, Segafredo Cafe
Lincoln Road
7pm
Cash Bar

New York Chapter Wednesday September 8, 2004 Happy Hour Grandes Ecoles

Special guests: Alumni Clubs of NYBSC
6:30pm to 8:30pm
Flute Midtown
205 West 54th Street
New York
Cash Bar

New York Chapter Friday October 8, 2004 Ambassador of France

S.E. Jean-David Levitte
French Consulate in New York
934 Fifth Avenue
Please RSVP (limited space) by email to Sophie Romana or call 212- 401-1310

New York Chapter Wednesday November 3, 2004 Happy Hour Grandes Ecoles

6:30pm to 8:30pm
Flute Midtown
205 West 54th Street
New York
Cash Bar

Job forum

Hedge Fund Controller, NYC

Description: Working with CFO, you will be responsible for all accounting work and financial statements, including financial analysis, monitoring history of profit attribution for different sectors, creating monthly reports for investors, analyzing broker statements/structures, due diligences, etc.
Profile: CPA with 10 to 15 years experience and a strong knowledge of the Hedge Fund Industry with excellent communication skills; Hands-on, proactive, solution driven, looking for a challenging position.

Contact: David Treussard, Michael Page International 212-672-6918

VP Operating risk, NYC

Description: Key member of the Investment Bank Operating Risk Team with risk management responsibilities for the North America Structured Credit Markets business; tasks include origination and advisory, risk management, principal trading, and support.
Profile: 6 to 10 years of operational risk management experience in a trading environment with good knowledge of derivative products, end-to-end transaction cycle, industry standards and best practices, systems, risk models and analytics, and excellent teamwork, interpersonal, leadership and oral/written communication skills.

Contact: David Treussard, Michael Page International 212-672-6918

Public Relations Manager, Pernod Ricard, White Plains, NY

Description: You will help maintain a favorable public image for employer or client by communicating employer's programs, accomplishments and perspective. You will implement policies and procedures for the public relations department, prepare and distribute news releases, fact sheets, etc. to media outlets.
Profile: 3 to 5 years experience in a PR agency, excellent verbal and written communication and interpersonal skills, comfortable with a fast-paced and time-sensitive environment, creative, problem-solver, challenge-driven, proactive, superior computer skills, (PowerPoint), knowledge of French language a plus.

Send resume and salary history to bonnie.see@pernod-ricard-usa.com.

Internship – Controller, Pernod Ricard, White Plains, NY

Description: You will participate to the elaboration of monthly reports, account consolidation, yearly and quarterly financial analysis, annual budget set up, coherence control over the year, etc.

Contact: alain.barbet@pernod-ricard-usa.com

Other Upcoming Events

Kellogg Alumni Club New York
Wednesday, August 11th
Multi-School MBA Happy Hour
Boat Basin Cafe on the Upper West Side
79th Street and the Hudson River
6:15pm – 10:30pm
Cash Bar and Full Foodservice Menu

University of Chicago Graduate School of Business - Alumni Club
Cocktail with Bangladesh Ambassador
Iftekhar Ahmed Chowdury, PhD
Wednesday, August 4th
6:30 pm to 8:30 pm
New York University
44 West 4th Street, Room 5-50
Contact: Joseph Cicero
RSVP: Click here

Contact the ESSEC USA Chapters:

- Boston – Claire Stokes
- Chicago – Damien Zinck
- Los Angeles – Isabelle Mauras
- Miami – Ovidiu Sofronia
- New York – Leslie Serrero

Thank You

Please feel free to send us your questions, comments or suggestions.

We hope you enjoyed reading this Newsletter and we look forward to seeing you at one of these events.

Have a nice and relaxing summer!

Anne-Laure Gilard
ESSEC USA Newsletter Editor