

October 2004

This newsletter is also available online at:
<http://www.essecusa.com/newsletter/newsletter.htm>

Editorial

Do not miss...

... Friday October 8, 2004 at 6:30pm, S.E. Jean-David Levitte, Ambassador of France, will speak at the French Consulate. Please RSVP ASAP to Anne de Louvigny Stone as the attendance is limited.

... Wednesday October 27th, the next ACREFEU Conference will be held at the French Consulate with the General Jean-Paul Raffenne, commandant of the NATO Defense College in Rome. The General will speak about current international issues such as NATO's presence in Iraq and the relationships between NATO, USA and Europe, bringing a new perspective on international politics and current diplomacy issues. This will be his last official visit to the ACREFEU as the commandant of the NATO Defense College. We are pleased to invite members of the Association des Grandes Ecoles.

To register: contact by email Sophie Romana or by phone (212) 401-1310

... Wednesday November 17th, Pierre Tapie, Dean of ESSEC Business School, will be in New York for an alumni event about ESSEC international development and the fundraising campaign. View Invitation
Please RSVP before November 10 by email to Anne de Louvigny Stone or by phone to Rafael Castillo: 212-284-5630. Open to ESSEC Alumni only!!!

ESSEC USA Community

Position available for a new Boston Chapter Leader

Our Boston Chapter Leader left Boston in June. If you are an ESSEC alumni fellow living in the Boston area and are willing to contribute to the development of our school in the US please contact Claire Stokes.

Amis des Grandes Ecoles

Volunteers we need your help!!!

Webmaster: you will update the website regularly according to the club's activity. In the long run you will be in charge of the English version as well as creating a forum for discussions and ads focused on job search and other tips related to working in the U.S.

Newsletter Editor: you will edit the monthly newsletter, collecting relevant information of interest to the members, enlarging the network's activity in the U.S. (for example with head hunters, immigration attorneys, etc.) and coordinating with the webmaster.

Job Coordinator: you will be assisting the VP job in updating the database (job offers and resumes) and communicate regularly on the activity (head hunters, candidates, etc); you will collaborate with the webmaster as well as the chapter leaders of each association.

These positions require no more than one hour of work/week and will allow you to network with the most prestigious business environments in the U.S.

For more information please contact: Anne de Louvigny Stone
Please visit the website at: <http://www.aagef.com/>

In This Issue

- Editorial
- ESSEC USA Community
- Amis des Grandes Ecoles
- Upcoming Events
- Job Forum
- Thank You

ESSEC USA Upcoming Events

New York Chapter Friday October 8, 2004 Ambassador of France

S.E. Jean-David Levitte
French Consulate in New York
934 Fifth Avenue
6:30pm Cocktail and Conference
Please RSVP ASAP (limited space) by email to Anne de Louvigny Stone (ESSEC only!!!)

Miami Chapter Wednesday October 13th Get together

7pm
Segafredo Café
Lincoln Road, South Beach
Cash Bar

New York Chapter Wednesday October 27, 2004 ACREFEU

General Jean-Paul Raffenne, commandant of the NATO Defense College in Rome
To register: please contact Sophie Romana or call (212) 401-1310

New York Chapter Wednesday November 3, 2004 Happy Hour Grandes Ecoles

6:30pm to 8:30pm
Flute Midtown
205 West 54th Street
Cash Bar

New York Chapter Wednesday November 17th, 2004

Pierre Tapie, Dean of ESSEC Business School
ESSEC international development
6:30pm to 8:30pm
CA Lyon 1301 Sixth Avenue, Floor 19
RSVP by Nov. 10 to Anne de Louvigny Stone or to Rafael Castillo: 212-284-5630
View Invitation

Immigration tips

Do not forget to apply for the Green Card Lottery!!! Info: Click here
"Etats-Unis: passeports pour un futur sous haute surveillance": Read article

Job forum

Looking for an internship in the USA

Currently an intern in the structured finance department (LBO) at CIC Paris and 4th year student at ESSEC MBA, I am seeking a 6-month intern position beginning January 2005 in the field of Investment Banking, controlling and audit. Please contact Gautier Fischel – Resume: Click here

Currently MBA student at EM-Lyon and graduated from EPSCI, seeking an intern position beginning April 2005 in the field of Sports or Leisure. Please contact Alexandre Koiransky

Positions available

Budget Director, Harvard Medical School (MA)

Description: Reporting to the Dean for Finance and supervising a staff of five. Key responsibilities include strategic financial planning for HMS: overseeing the annual budget, developing and maintaining the 6 year plan, reporting to the Budget Office, conducting financial analyses, improving financial systems and acting as liaison for all departments and senior management. More info

Contact: Patricia Herzog, Partner at Sage Search Partners

Financial Advisor, Merrill Lynch, NYC

Description: Involves extensive client development, prospective and consultative selling. Training provided: Series 7 and in-house training program. French and English needed. More info

Contact: Anne de Louvigny Stone at Merrill Lynch : 212 284 5630

Staff Auditor in commercial bank Internal Audit Department, NY

Description: Reports to Chief Auditor and assists in department audits, drafts reports, tests for compliance. More Info

Contact: Evan Lee, Accent International Recruiting Group (212) 779-3333

Auditor in Internal Audit Department, NY

Description: Conducts internal audits, assists CFO, prepares and issues internal control procedures, assists Treasury Manager. More Info

Contact: Evan Lee, Accent International Recruiting Group (212) 779-3333

Auditor in Internal Audit Department in charge of Corporate Department, NY

Description: Conducts internal audits in Finance, IT, HR, Premium Audit, Loss Control; prepares reports and supports external auditors; creates audit manual for corporate departments. More Info

Contact: Evan Lee, Accent International Recruiting Group (212) 779-3333

Internship – Constantin

Description: You will contribute to end-of-year audit evaluations. More info

Contact: Remi Forgeas Phone: (212) 755-5551

Other Upcoming Events

Tuesday, October 12, 2004

Indiana University – Kelley School of Business: Women in Business Happy Hour

6:30 pm to 8:30 pm
Hudson Hotel Bar, 356 West 58th Street
No advance registration required
Cash bar
Contact: Ann Dolezal (917) 756-0470

Save the date!!!

All-MBA Soiree

Wednesday October 27, 2004

6:30 pm to 10:30 pm
Strata
915 Broadway @ 21st Street
More info to come

Contact the ESSEC USA Chapters:

- Boston – Claire Stokes
- Chicago – Damien Zinck
- Los Angeles – Isabelle Mauras
- Miami – Ovidiu Sofronia
- New York – TBA

Thank You

Please feel free to send us your questions, comments or suggestions.

We hope you enjoyed reading this Newsletter and we look forward to seeing you at one of these events.

Best regards,

Anne-Laure Gilard

ESSEC USA Newsletter Editor & Webmaster